Good Morning Whitehall Residents,

December 11, 2018

Just a reminder that today, from 12-9 the district is holding a vote on our proposed Capital Project. I would encourage all district residents to take the time to come to the HS gymnasium during that time to cast your Vote.

Proposition 1 - $16,592,061

Replace failing roofs at the Elementary and the High School
Enhance emergency lighting fire alarm system at Elementary and High School
Replace HVAC at the High School
Replace windows and cafeteria storefront at the High School
Replace boilers and oil tank at the High School
Renovate existing science rooms at the High School
Reconstruct existing track/field events, bleachers and fencing
Relocate main entry and create a secure vestibule at the Elementary

*ZERO cost to the taxpayer. Paid in full by Capital Reserve and State Aid.

Proposition 2 - $1,908,449

Replace interior doors and lock sets for security and ADA compliance in both buildings
Renovate space to create Adaptive PE/Fitness/Wright room at the High School
Renovate space for Art classes at the High School
Traffic circulation and safety improvements at the Elementary

*Associated Taxpayer Cost on a $100,000 home:

- *$3.00 per year for residents with Enhanced Star
- *$6.50 per year for residents with Basic Star
- *$10.00 per year for residents without Star Exemption

Thank you for "Investing in our Future."

Best,

Patrick Dee
